BUDGET FOR 1957-58—DEMANDS FOR GRANTS.

Demand No. 23—Agriculture, Horticulture and Fisheries.

No. 24—Rural Development.

No. 25—Veterinary.

(Discussion continued)

Sri J. H. SHAMSUDDIN (Honavar).—Mr. Speaker, I rise to support the Demands. First I shall confine my remarks to the Department of Fisheries and, if time permits, to the question of Animal Husbandry.

Sir, in the re-organisation of States, Mysore State has acquired a territory of 200 miles consisting of a coast line which is rich in fisheries. This problem is of vital importance to the new State of Mysore on account of the fact that fisheries play a very important role in dietetic system of this State. According to the old statistics that is now available so far as old Mysore State is concerned, the per capita consumption of fish was one-seventh of an ounce. But according to the recommendation of the Government of India, the
